

Heather Haunani Giugni

P.O. Box 37969 Honolulu, HI 96837

Cell (808) 864-7211

www.juniroa.com

juniroa@aol.com

SUMMARY

Producer/Director of multimedia programming since 1985, creating projects from concept to completion.

Visual Creator skilled in camera operation, direction, edit supervision; producing thought-provoking, award winning products which have been acknowledged locally and nationally.

Owner/operator of Juniroa Productions Inc., a video company dedicated to creating programming for and about our Hawaiian community.

WORKS IN PROGRESS/CLIENTS – 2008

Broadcast News:

'Aha'i 'Oleo Ola [Messenger of a Living Language]

A ground-breaking Hawaiian news segment in the Hawaiian language on a CBS-affiliate station. KGMB-TV News, Honolulu, HI. Client: Aha Punana Leo.

Live Broadcast:

Kamehameha Schools Song Contest

Co-Executive Producer for the 2008 Annual Song Contest.
Supervised live program, DVD and audio-video iTunes download.

Training:

Hawaii Alive! - Halau Lokahi Charter School

A collaborative partnership between the Bishop Museum, WGBH Boston Public Television, the Institute of American Indian Arts, Halau Lokahi and Juniroa Productions. The intent is to create a place-based curriculum for educational purposes as well as a media center for Halau Lokahi.

Website Content:

ALTRES "Hawaii's employment expert"

Established in 1969, ALTRES has become Hawaii's leading staffing and outsource human resource institution. Juniroa created storytelling content for website use. www.juniroa.com/Altres_Punanaleo.mp4

Harold K. Castle: Castlebuilding

A brief history of Harold Castle and the work he did to help create the Kailua community we know today.

http://www.kaneoheranch.com/index.cfm?page=history_castle&subnav=subnav_history§ion=history&subsection=castle

Documentary:

“ONE VOICE”

Co-Executive Producer and Co-Producer for a one-hour program for national television on the Kamehameha Schools song contest. “One Voice” is an Executive Production of Pacific Islanders in Communications, a corporation funded by The Corporation for Public Television. www.piccom.org

Nappy: A Man & The Sea

A short documentary about a Hawaiian man who has lived and loved the water for 66 years. This project focuses on Nappy Napoleon’s 50th Molokai Hoe (canoe paddling competition) channel crossing.

<http://the.honoluluadvertiser.com/article/2007/Oct/03/In/hawaii710030421.html>

Ulana Lauhala

The story of lauhala and the cultural practitioners that have kept this art form alive.

Papa Ola Lokahi: Looking to the Future

The story of this organization and its statewide efforts to change a community’s lifestyle in terms of health and wellness. A look back over the last 20 years. www.papaolalokahi.org

A SELECTION OF RECENT PAST WORKS

- | | |
|------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2007 | Kamehameha Schools Song Contest Live Broadcast
Co-Executive Producer for the 2008 Annual Song Contest. Supervised live program, DVD and audio-video iTunes download. A Silver and Bronze Telly Award Winner!
http://www.ksbe.edu/webcast/downloadsanddvds.php |
| 2005 | Aloha Live!
A one hour rockumentary following the Aloha Live Tour with Hawaiian contemporary musical talents Amy Gilliom and Willie K. Telly Award Winner. |
| 2005 | PUNAHOU SCHOOL – Providing Multimedia
Since 2002, hired by Punahou School to create information media products for parents, students, faculty and interested parties concerning this school and its philosophy and long-range plans. |
| 2004 | The Arizona Visitor’s Museum at Pearl Harbor
The present visitor’s center is sinking and funds are needed to build a new facility. This production will be used as a fundraising tool in an effort to rebuild this important facility. |
| 2004 | Augie T Live! – The DVD
A GF Production LLC collaboration, this DVD presents popular local comedian AugieTulba live at the Hawaii Theater. Special features. |

- 2003 Ke Ali'i Pauahi Awards
Video vignettes of the award winners who include Kumu Hula Pualani Kanaka'ole Kanahele, Kumu Nona Beamer, QLCC Trustee David Peters, former Trustee Matsuo Takabuki, Dr. Emmett Aluli and Dr. Isabella Abbot.
- 2003 Papa Ola Lokahi: The Website
Since 2001, providing website consultation and content for the Native Hawaiian Health Website. Please visit www.nativehawaiianhealth.com.
- 2003 Daniel K. Inouye: An American Story- Interactive DVD
A one-hour television special about the life and times of U. S. Senator Daniel Inouye. This project is not only a biography of a single man, it is also the story of a generation and the role that generation played in molding Hawai'i in the second half of the 20th century.

PARTNERSHIPS/CONSULTATION:

2007-2008 BLUE PLANET FESTIVAL, an organization seeking to educate the public on alternative energy resources. Position: Government Liaison Consultant.
www.blueplanetfestival.com

2006-2007 MEDIAK, Cook Inlet Tribal Corporation, Anchorage, Alaska. Position: Summer Workshop Video Consultant.

GF Productions LLC, a partnership with Hawaii Stars Inc. to produce quality programming for DVD retail sales 2003 – 2006

The Academy for Creative Media, University of Hawaii Film School, 2004

PAST & PRESENT EXPERIENCE:

2005 – '08 Board Member, Hawaii Film & Television Board
1993-'98 Board Member of 'Olelo: The Corporation for Community Television;
1990-'93 Founding Member, Pacific Islanders in Communications;
1989-'93 Video Consultant/Teacher for Na Pua No'eau, UH Hilo;
1981-1986 KGMB-TV News, a CBS Affiliate, Honolulu, Hawaii

EDUCATION:

Kamehameha Schools, Maryland University